2. CARRIER'S TARIFF

The terms and conditions of the Carrier's applicable Tariff are incorporated herein. Particular attention is drawn to the terms and conditions therein relating to container and vehicle demurrage. Copies of the relevant provisions of the applicable Tariff are obtainable from the Carrier or his Agents upon request on our web page: www.dal.biz. In the case of inconsistency between this Bill of Lading and the applicable Tariff, this Bill of Lading shall prevail.

3. WARRANTY

The Merchant warrants that in agreeing to the terms and conditions hereof he is, or has the authority of, the Person owning or entitled to the possession of the Goods and this Bill of Lading.

4. SUB-CONTRACTING AND INDEMNITY

(1) The Carrier shall be entitled to sub-contract the Carriage on any terms whatsoever.

(2) The Merchant undertakes that no claim or allegation whether arising in contract, bailment, tort or otherwise shall be made against any Person (other than the carrier, his dependent servants and the vessel's crew) by whom the Carriage is performed or undertaken (including but not limited to all Sub-Contractors of the Carrier, including managers), which imposes or attempts to impose upon any such Person, or any vessel owned or chartered by any such Person, any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods or the Carriage of the Goods, whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of such Person. Such Person shall also be entitled to enforce the foregoing covenant against the Merchant. The Merchant undertakes that, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, he will indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 4 (2), every exemption, limitation, condition and liberty contained herein (other than Art III Rule 8 of the Hague/Hague-Visby Rules if incorporated herein) and every right, exemption from liability, defence and immunity of whatsoever nature applicable to the Carrier or to which the Carrier is entitled hereunder including the right to enforce any choice of law and/or jurisdiction clause contained herein shall also be available and shall extend to every such Person or vessel, who shall be entitled to enforce the same against the Merchant.

(4) For the purposes of Clause 4 (2)-(4), the Carrier is or shall be deemed to be acting as agent or trustee on behalf of and for the benefit of such Person who shall to this extent be or be deemed to be a party to this Bill of Lading.

(5) The Merchant further undertakes that no claim or allegation in respect of the Goods shall be made against the Carrier by any Person other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading which provides or attempts to impose upon the Carrier any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods, or the Carriage of the Goods, whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of the Carrier and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.

(6) The provisions of Clause 4 (2) and (3) above, including but not limited to the undertakings of the Merchant contained therein, shall not apply to claims or allegations of whatsoever nature against other Persons chartering space on the carrying vessel.

5. CARRIER'S RESPONSIBILITY

(1) Port-to-Port Shipment

(a) If any loss or damage has occurred between the time of loading of the Goods at the Port of Loading and the time of discharge at the Port of Discharge, the responsibility of the Carrier shall be determined in accordance with German law making the Hague Rules compulsorily applicable to the Bill of Lading.

(b) The Carrier shall not be liable for any loss by his personnel and/or the Vessel's crew for cases of damage or loss caused by the navigation or management of the Vessel except for the damage or loss caused while executing measures which were predominantly taken in the interests of the Goods ("Error in Navigation"), or caused by a fire or explosion on board the Vessel ("Fire").

(c) The Carrier shall not be liable for any fault of other persons involved in the navigation or management of the Vessel, or in the use of the pilot or the Crew of a tug boat assisting the Vessel, for cases of damage or loss caused by the navigation or management of the Vessel except for the damage or loss caused while executing measures which were predominantly taken in the interests of the Goods ("Error in Navigation").

(d) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss of or damage to the Goods occurring, if such loss or damage arises prior to loading on, or subsequent to the discharge from, the vessel. However, in the event that the applicable compulsory law provides the contrary, the Carrier shall have the benefit of every right, defence limitation and liberty in the Hague-Visby Rules or Hague Rules, whichever is applicable.

(e) Only in countries where the Hamburg Rules are compulsorily applicable in accordance with its Article II, 1, a-d this Convention shall apply.

(2) Combined Transport

(a) If the place of damage to or loss of the Goods is known, the responsibility of the Carrier is determined by the law applicable to this leg of Carriage. If the place of damage to or loss of the goods can be attributed to the port-to-port Clause 5.1 (1) a-d applies.

(b) Where applicable, liability shall be determined in accordance with the following conventions and agreements: CMR, CIM, Montreal Convention, Warsaw Convention, CMI, and any amendments to these conventions and agreements. In cases where CMI is applicable, the Carrier is not liable for loss of or damage to the Goods arising during the Carriage by inland waterway from an act or omission by the master of the vessel, the pilot or any other person in the service of the vessel, pusher or tow during navigation or in the formation or dissolution of a pushed or towed convoy, provided that the carrier exercised due diligence to ensure that – taking into account the Goods to be carried – the vessel is in a state to receive the Goods, is seaworthy and is manned and equipped as prescribed by the regulations in force and is furnished with the necessary national and international authorizations for the Carriage of the Goods in question, unless the act or omission results from an intention to cause damage or from reckless conduct with the knowledge that such damage would probably result. In cases where CMI is applicable, the Carrier shall neither be liable for losses arising from fire or an explosion on board the vessel, unless such fire or explosion resulted from a fault of the Carrier or his servants or agents or a defect of the vessel.

(c) IN THE EVENT THAT THE LAW WHICH IS APPLICABLE UNDER CLAUSE 5 (2) (a) OR (b) IS NOT MANDATORY FOR THIS TRANSPORT AND PROVIDES FOR LIABILITY EXCEEDING 2 SDR PER KILO OF THE GROSS WEIGHT OF THE GOODS LOST OR DAMAGED, THE MAXIMUM LIABILITY SHALL BE 2 SDR PER KILO OF THE GROSS WEIGHT OF THE GOODS LOST OR DAMAGED. SDR MEANS SPECIAL DRAWING RIGHT AS DEFINED BY THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND.

(d) IF THE PLACE OF DAMAGE TO OR LOSS OF THE GOODS IS NOT KNOWN, THE CARRIER'S LIABILITY SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GERMAN LAW INCORPORATING THE HAGUE RULES. THE LIABILITY OF THE CARRIER SHALL NOT EXCEED 2 SDR PER KILO OF THE GROSS WEIGHT OF THE GOODS LOST OR DAMAGED.

(e) THE CARRIER SHALL NOT BE ENTITLED TO THE BENEFIT OF THE LIMITATION OF LIABILITY PROVIDED FOR IN CLAUSE 5 (2) (c) AND (d) IF IT IS PROVEN THAT THE DAMAGE RESULTED FROM AN ACT OR OMISSION OF THE CARRIER OR HIS SERVANTS DONE WITH INTENT TO CAUSE DAMAGE OR RECKLESSLY AND WITH KNOWLEDGE THAT DAMAGE WOULD PROBABLY RESULT. HOWEVER, IF THE LOSS OR DAMAGE HAS OCCURRED DURING THE CARRIAGE OF GOODS BY SEA, THE CARRIER IS ENTITLED TO THE BENEFIT OF LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AS PROVIDED FOR IN CLAUSE 5 (2) (c) EXCEPT WHERE A LAW APPLIES MAKING THE HAGUE-VISBY RULES COMPULSORILY APPLICABLE OR IT IS PROVEN THAT THE DAMAGE RESULTED FROM AN ACT OR OMISSION OF THE CARRIER DONE WITH INTENT TO CAUSE DAMAGE OR RECKLESSLY AND WITH KNOWLEDGE THAT DAMAGE WOULD PROBABLY RESULT.

(3) Notice of Claim and Time for Suit

Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage is given in writing to the Carrier at the Port of Discharge or at the Place of Delivery at the time of delivery of the Goods into the custody of a person entitled to delivery of it in cases where the loss or damage is not apparent, such notice is not given within three days after such delivery, the absence of any such notice shall be prima facie evidence of the right and true delivery of the Goods and any such loss or damage which may have occurred to the Goods shall be deemed to be due to circumstances which are not the responsibility of the Carrier. In any event, the Carrier shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss or damage to/ of the Goods, non-delivery, misdelivery, delay, or any other loss or damage connected or related to the Carriage unless suit is brought within one year after delivery of the Goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered.

6. SUNDRY LIABILITY PROVISIONS

(1) Delay

The Carrier does not undertake that the Goods arrive at the port of discharge or place of delivery at any particular time or meet any particular market or use. The Carrier shall not be liable for direct, indirect or consequential losses caused by delay. To the extent the Carrier, contrary to the foregoing, is being held responsible for losses caused by delay, the liability shall not exceed three times the amount of the Freight payable in the event of combined transport and the amount of the Freight payable for the delayed Goods in the event of a port-to-port shipment. Such limitations shall not apply if it is proven that the losses caused by delay resulted from an act or omission of the carrier or his servants done with intent to cause such losses or recklessly and with knowledge that such losses would probably result.

(2) Other Losses

Except for provided otherwise herein the Carrier shall not be liable for other direct, indirect or consequential losses than those caused by delay or to loss of the Goods or by delay. To the extent the Carrier, contrary to the foregoing, is being held responsible for such other losses, the liability shall not exceed three times the maximum liability under Clause 5 (2) (d). This limitation shall not apply in the event of damage to property or to persons in a way if it is proven that such losses resulted from an act or omission of the carrier himself done with intent to cause such losses or recklessly and with knowledge that such losses would probably result.

(3) General

The rights, defenses, limitations and liberties of whatsoever nature provided in this Bill of Lading shall apply in any action against the Carrier for any loss or damage or delay, however occurring and whether the action is founded in contract, bailment and tort or otherwise. Nothing contained in this Bill of Lading shall deprive the Carrier of any of its rights including but not limited to defenses, exemptions and limitations of liability provided for elsewhere.

(4) Inspection by Authorities

If by order of authorities at any place, a Container has to be opened for the Goods to be inspected, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of any opening, unpacking, inspection or re-packing. The Carrier shall be entitled to recover the cost of such opening, unpacking, inspection and re-packing from the Merchant.

7. SHIPPER-PACKED CONTAINERS

If a Container has not been packed by or on behalf of the Carrier:

- The Carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods caused by:
 - the manner in which the Container has been packed, or,
 - the unsuitability of the Goods for carriage in the Container supplied, or
 - the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container or the incorrect setting of any refrigeration controls thereof, provided that, if the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this unsuitability or defective condition could have been apparent upon inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was packed, or
 - packing temperature controlled Goods that are not at the correct temperature for Carriage.
- The Shipper is responsible for the packing, securing and sealing of all Shipper-Packed Containers and, if a Shipper-Packed Container is delivered by the Carrier with its original seal as affixed by the Shipper intact, the Carrier shall not be liable for loss or damage to the Goods caused by the manner in which the Container was packed, or
- the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container or the incorrect setting of any refrigeration controls thereof, provided that, if the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this unsuitability or defective condition could have been apparent upon inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was packed, or
- the manner in which the Container was packed, or
- the unsuitability or defective condition of the Container or the incorrect setting of any refrigeration controls thereof, provided that, if the Container has been supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier, this unsuitability or defective condition could have been apparent upon inspection by the Merchant at or prior to the time when the Container was packed, or
- packing temperature controlled Goods that are not at the correct temperature for Carriage.

(3) The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any loss, damage, liability or expense whatsoever and however arising caused by one or more of the matters referred to in Clause 7 (1).

8. INSPECTION OF GOODS

The Carrier or any Person to whom the Carrier has sub-contracted the Carriage or any Person authorized by the Carrier shall be entitled, but under no obligation, to open any Container or package at any time and to inspect, weigh and/or measure the Goods.

9. CARRIAGE AFFECTED BY CONDITION OF GOODS

If it appears at any time that, due to their condition, the Goods cannot safely or properly be carried or carried further, either at all or without incurring any additional expense or taking any measure(s) in relation to the Container or the Goods the Carrier may without notice to the Merchant (but as his agent only) take any measure(s) and/or incur any additional expense to carry or to continue the Carriage thereof, and/or sell or dispose of the Goods, and/or abandon the Carriage and/or store them ashore or afloat, under cover or in the open, at any place, whichever the Carrier, in its absolute discretion, considers most appropriate, which abandonment, storage, sale or disposal shall be deemed to constitute due delivery under this Bill of Lading insofar as the reasons for the measures taken originated from the sphere of responsibility of the Merchant. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against any additional expense so incurred.

10. DESCRIPTION OF GOODS

(1) The Carrier shall be liable for the false evidence of the receipt by the Carrier from the Shipper in apparent good order and condition, except as otherwise noted, of the total number of Containers or other packages or units indicated in the box on the face hereof entitled, "Total No. of Containers/Packages received by the Carrier".

(2) Except as provided in Clause 10 (1), no representation is made by the Carrier as to the weight, contents, measure, quantity, quality, description, condition, marks, numbers or value of the Goods, and the Carrier shall be under no responsibility whatsoever in respect of such description or particulars.

(3) If any particulars of any Letter of Credit and/or Import License and/or Sale Contract and/or Invoice or Order number and/or details of any contract to which the Carrier is not a party are shown on the face of this Bill of Lading, such particulars do not constitute the basis of the receipt of the Merchant for his convenience. The Merchant agrees that the value of the goods is unknown to the Carrier and that the inclusion of such particulars shall not be regarded as a declaration of value and in any way increases the Carrier's liability under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant further agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences of including such particulars in this Bill of Lading.

11. MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY

(1) All of the Persons coming within the definition of Merchant in Clause 1 and agreeing expressly or otherwise to be bound by this Bill of Lading shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the due fulfillment of all obligations undertaken by the Merchant in this Bill of Lading.

(2) The Merchant warrants to the Carrier that the particulars relating to the Goods as set out overlaid have been checked by the Merchant on receipt of this Bill of Lading and that such particulars and any other particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Merchant, are adequate and correct. The Merchant also warrants that the Goods are lawful Goods and contain no contraband and the Merchant warrants that any Container supplied by him complies with CSC and ISO standards and that the Merchant for his convenience, the Merchant agrees that the value of the goods is unknown to the Carrier and that the inclusion of such particulars shall not be regarded as a declaration of value and in any way increases the Carrier's liability under this Bill of Lading. The Merchant further agrees to indemnify the Carrier against all consequences of including such particulars in this Bill of Lading.

(3) The Merchant shall be liable to the Carrier against all claims, loss, damage, fines and expenses arising or resulting from any breach of any of the warranties in Clause 11 (2) hereof or from any other cause in connection with the Goods for which the Carrier is not responsible.

(4) The Merchant shall comply with all regulations or requirements of customs, port and other authorities, and shall bear and pay all duties, taxes, fines, imposts, expenses for losses (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, Freight for any additional Carriage undertaken) incurred or suffered by reason of any failure to so comply, or by reason of any illegal, incorrect or insufficient marking, numbering or addressing of the Goods, and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect thereof.

(5) If Containers supplied by or on behalf of the Carrier are unpacked at the Merchant's premises, the Merchant is responsible for returning the empty Containers, with interiors clean, to the point or place designated by the Carrier, his servants or agents, within the time prescribed. Should a Container not be returned within the time prescribed, in full, the Merchant shall be liable for any detention, loss or expenses which may arise from such non-return.

(6) Containers released into the care of the Merchant for packing, unpacking or any other purpose whatsoever are at the sole risk of the Merchant whilst in his control. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier for all loss and/or damage to such Containers or fines and penalties incurred in relation to such Containers. Merchants are deemed to be aware of the dimensions of any Containers released to them.

12. FREIGHT

(1) Freight shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods by the Carrier and shall be paid and non-returnable unless the carriage of the Goods becomes impossible due to reasons lying in the sphere of responsibility of the Carrier.

(2) The Merchant's attention is drawn to the stipulations concerning currency in which the Freight is to be paid, rate of exchange, devaluation and other contingencies relative to Freight in the applicable Tariff.

(3) Freight has been calculated on the basis of particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper. If the particulars furnished by or on behalf of the Shipper are incorrect, it is agreed that liquidated damages shall be payable to the Carrier in accordance with the applicable Tariff.

(4) Freight has been calculated on the basis of the Carrier's costs as known at the time the contract of Carriage is made. Should in an emergency there be any subsequent substantial change in those costs (including, but not limited to, additional war risks premiums), the Carrier may recover additional Freight from the Merchant, whether or not it is prepared to accept and whether or not Carriage has commenced.

(5) All Freight shall be paid without any set-off, counter-claim, deduction or stay of execution before delivery of the Goods.

(6) Any person engaged by the Merchant to perform forwarding services in respect of the Goods shall be considered to be the exclusive agent of the Merchant for all purposes and any payment of Freight to such Person shall not be considered payment to the Carrier in any event. Failure of such Person to pay any part of the Freight to the Carrier shall be considered a default by the Merchant.

13. LIEN

The Carrier shall have a lien on the Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums payable to the Carrier under this contract and for general average contributions, salvage and charges to whomsoever due. The Carrier shall also have a lien against the current Holder on the Goods and any documents relating thereto for all sums due from him to the Carrier under any other contract. In any event any lien shall extend to cover the cost of recovering the Goods and for that purpose the Carrier shall have the right to sell the Goods by public auction or private treaty, without notice to the Merchant.

14. OPTIONAL STOWAGE AND DECK CARGO

(1) The Goods may be packed by the Carrier in Containers and consolidated with other goods in Containers.

(2) Goods, whether or not packed in Containers, may be carried under deck and as far as packed suitably for deck carriage also on deck at the sole discretion of the Carrier without notice to the Merchant. All such Goods whether carried on deck or under deck, shall participate in general average and shall be deemed to be within the definition of Goods for the purpose of the Hague Rules and shall be carried subject to these Rules.

(3) Notwithstanding Clause 14 (2), in the case of Goods which are stated on the face hereof as being carried on deck the Hague Rules shall not apply and if such is carried the Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for loss, damage or delay, however arising whether or not caused by negligence of the Carrier, his servants, agents or sub-contractors.

15. LIVE ANIMALS

The Hague Rules shall not apply to the Carriage of live animals, which are carried at the sole risk of the Merchant. The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever for any injury, illness, death, delay or destruction however arising. Should the Master in his sole discretion consider that any live animal is likely to be injurious to any other live animal or any person or property on board, or to cause the vessel to be delayed or impeded in the prosecution of the Carriage, such live animal may be destroyed and thrown overboard without any liability attaching to the Carrier. The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all or any extra costs incurred for any reason whatsoever in connection with the Carriage of any live animal.

16. METHODS AND ROUTES OF CARRIAGE

(1) The Carrier may at any time and without notice to the Merchant:

- use any means of carriage whatsoever,
- transfer the Goods from one conveyance to another, including but not limited to trans-shipment or carrying them on another vessel than that named on the face hereof,
- unpack and remove the Goods which have been packed into a Container and forward them in a Container or otherwise,

(2) proceed by any route in his discretion (whether or not the nearest or most direct or customary or advertised route), and proceed to or stay at any place or port whatsoever, once or more often, at any time, and

(3) load or unload the Goods at any place or port (whether or not such port is named overlaid as the Port of Loading or Port of Discharge) and store the Goods at any such place or port,

(4) comply with any orders or recommendations given by any government or authority, or any Person acting or purporting to act as or on behalf of such government or authority, or having under the terms of any insurance or any compliance employed by the Carrier the right to give orders or directions,

(5) permit the vessel to proceed with or without pilots, to tow or be towed, or to be dry-docked with or without Goods and/or containers on board,

(6) The liberties set out in Clause 16 (1) may be invoked by the Carrier for any purpose whatsoever, whether or not connected with the Carriage of the Goods, including loading or unloading other goods, bunkering, unloading repairs, adjusting instruments, picking up or landing any persons, including but not limited to persons involved with the operation or maintenance of the vessel and assisting vessels in all situations. Anything done in accordance with Clause 16 (1) or any delay arising therefrom shall be deemed to be within the contractual Carriage and shall not be a deviation.

(3) By tendering the Goods for Carriage without any written request for Carriage in a specialized Container, or within a specific temperature range, or subject to any particular attention, or for Carriage otherwise than in a Container, the Merchant accepts that the Carriage may properly be undertaken in a general purpose container in the customary manner carried on or under deck at the Carrier's sole discretion.

17. MATTERS AFFECTING PERFORMANCE

If at any time the Carriage is or is likely to be affected by any hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage of any kind (other than the inability of the Goods safely or properly to be carried or carried further) and however arising (even though the circumstances giving rise to such hindrance, risk, delay, difficulty or disadvantage existed at the time this contract was entered into or the Goods were received for Carriage), the Carrier (whether or not the Carriage is commenced) may, without prior notice to the Merchant and at the sole discretion of the Carrier, either:

(a) Carry the Goods to the contracted Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery, whichever is applicable, by an alternative route to that indicated in this Bill of Lading or to which which is usual for Goods consigned to that Port of Discharge or Place of Delivery. If the Carrier elects to invoke the terms of this Clause 17 (a) then, notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 16 hereof, he shall be entitled to charge such additional Freight as the Carrier may determine; or

(b) Suspend the Carriage of the Goods and store them ashore or afloat upon the terms of this Bill of Lading and endeavor to forward them as soon as possible, but the Carrier makes no representations as to the maximum period of suspension. If the Carrier elects to invoke the terms of this Clause 17 (b) then, notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 16 hereof, he shall be entitled to charge such additional Freight as the Carrier may determine; or

(c) Abandon the Carriage of the Goods and place them at Merchant's disposal at any place or port which the Carrier may deem safe and convenient, whereupon the responsibility of the Carrier in respect of such Goods shall cease. The Carrier shall nevertheless be entitled to full Freight on the Goods received for Carriage, and the Merchant shall pay any additional costs of the Carriage to, and delivery and storage at, such place or port.

If the Carrier elects to use an alternative route under Clause 17 (a) or to suspend the Carriage under Clause 17 (b) this shall not prejudice his right subsequently to abandon the Carriage.

18. DANGEROUS GOODS

(1) No Goods which are or may become dangerous, inflammable or damaging (including radio-active materials), or which are or may become liable to damage any property whatsoever, shall be tendered to the Carrier for Carriage without his express consent in writing, and without the Container as well as the Goods themselves being distinctly marked on the outside so as to indicate the nature and character of any such Goods and so as to comply with any applicable laws, regulations or requirements. If any such Goods are delivered to the Carrier without such written consent and/or marking, or if in the opinion of the Carrier the Goods are or are liable to become a dangerous, inflammable or damaging nature, they may at any time be destroyed, disposed of, abandoned, or rendered harmless without compensation to the Merchant and without prejudice to the Carrier's right to Freight.

(2) The Merchant undertakes that such Goods are packed in a manner adequate to withstand the risks of Carriage having regard to their nature and in compliance with all laws or regulations which may be applicable during the Carriage.

(3) Whether or not the Merchant was aware of the nature of such Goods, the Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all claims, losses, damages or expenses arising in consequence of the Carriage of such Goods.

(4) Nothing contained in this Clause shall deprive the Carrier of any of his rights provided for elsewhere.

19. NOTIFICATION AND DELIVERY

(1) Any mention herein of parties to be notified of the arrival of the Goods is solely for information of the Carrier, and failure to give such notification shall not involve the Carrier in any liability nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation hereunder.

(2) The Merchant shall take delivery of the Goods within the time provided for in the Carrier's applicable Tariff (see Clause 2). If the Merchant fails to do so the Carrier shall be entitled, without notice, to unpack the Goods if packed in Containers and/or to store the Goods ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover, at the sole risk of the Merchant. Such storage shall constitute due delivery hereunder, and thereupon the liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods stored as aforesaid shall wholly cease, and the costs of such storage (if paid or payable by the Carrier or any agent or subcontractor of the Carrier) shall forthwith upon demand be paid by the Merchant to the Carrier.

(3) If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods within thirty days of delivery becoming due under Clause 2 (a) or if in the opinion of the Carrier they are likely to deteriorate, decay, become worthless or incur charges whether for storage or otherwise in excess of their value, the Carrier may, without prejudice to any other rights which he may have against the Merchant, without notice and without any responsibility whatsoever attaching to him, sell, destroy or dispose of the Goods and apply any proceeds of the sale in reduction of the sums due to the Carrier from the Merchant in respect of this Bill of Lading.

(4) If at the place where the Carrier is entitled to call upon the Merchant to take delivery of the Goods under Clause 19 (2), the Carrier is obliged to hand over the Goods into the custody of any customs, port or any other authority, such hand-over shall constitute due delivery to the Merchant under this Bill of Lading.

(5) If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods within the time provided for in the terms of this Clause and/or to mitigate any loss or damage thereto shall constitute a waiver by the Merchant to the Carrier of any claim whatsoever relating to the Goods or the Carriage thereof.

(6) If the consignee/receiver requires the Carrier to deliver the Goods at a port or place beyond the Port of Discharge or, as the case may be, beyond the Place of Delivery originally designated in this Bill of Lading, and the Carrier in his absolute discretion agrees to such further Carriage, such further Carriage will be undertaken on the basis that the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading are to apply to such Carriage as if the ultimate destination as agreed with the consignee/receiver had been included in the description of the transport on the front side of this Bill of Lading.

20. FCL MULTIPLE BILLS OF LADING

(1) Goods will only be delivered in a Container to the Merchant if all Bills of Lading in respect of the contents of the Container have been surrendered authorizing delivery to a single Merchant at a single Place of Delivery. In the event that Bills of Lading have been surrendered, deliver them to the Merchant on an LCL basis. Such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder, but will only be affected against payment by the Merchant of LCL Service Charges and any charges appropriate to LCL Goods (as laid down in the Tariff) together with the actual costs incurred for any additional services rendered.

(2) If this is an FCL Multiple Bill of Lading (as evidenced by the qualification of the tally acknowledged overlaid to the effect that it is "One of part cargoes in the Container"), then the Goods detailed overlaid are said to comprise part of the contents of the Container indicated. If the Carrier is required to deliver the Goods to more than one Merchant and if all or part of the total Goods within the Container consists of bulk Goods or unbranded or unmarked Goods, the Carrier may, without notice, separate, mix or recombine the Goods of Lading relating to Goods within the Container shall take delivery thereof (including any damaged portion) and bear any shortage in such proportions as the Carrier shall in his absolute discretion determine, and such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder.

(3) If the merchant is given an option to select the port of discharge, such option must be declared to the vessel's agents at the first of the optional ports not later than 72 hours before the vessel's arrival there. In the absence of such declaration the Carrier may elect to discharge at the first port or any other optional port and the contract of carriage will then be considered as having been fulfilled. Any option can be exercised only for the total quantity under this bill of lading.

21. GENERAL AVERAGE

(1) Average on a vessel operated by the Carrier shall be adjusted, stated and settled according to the York-Antwerp Rules of 1994 or any subsequent amendment thereto at any port or place and in any currency at the option of any by an adjuster appointed by the Carrier. General Average on a vessel not operated by the Carrier (whether a seagoing or inland waterways vessel) shall be adjusted, stated and settled according to the requirements of the operator of that vessel.

(2) Cargo's contribution to General Average shall be paid to the Carrier even when such average is the result of a fault, neglect or error of the Master, Pilot or Crew.

22. VARIATION OF THE CONTRACT

No servant or agent of the Carrier shall have the power to waive or vary any of the terms of this Bill of Lading, unless such waiver or variation is in writing and is specifically authorized or ratified in writing by the Carrier.

23. LAW AND JURISDICTION

Any claim and/or any dispute arising under this Bill of Lading or connected with this Bill of Lading or the Carriage shall be governed by the laws of GERMANY and shall be determined by the courts in HAMBURG to the exclusion of the jurisdiction of any other courts of any other place.

25. U.S. TRADE

In the event that this Bill of Lading has been issued in the USA or in a country making the Hague Rules applicable and that this Bill of Lading covers a shipment from or to the USA or in the event that, contrary to Clause 24, suit is brought in a court in the USA and such court accepts jurisdiction, then the United States Carriage of Goods by Sea Act ("US COGSA") shall apply. The application of US COGSA shall be extended to the time before the Goods are loaded on or to the time after they are discharged from the vessel. The maximum liability of the Carrier in respect of the Goods shall not exceed USD 500 per package, or where the Goods are not shipped in packages, USD 500 per customary freight unit, unless the nature and value of the Goods have been declared by the Merchant and inserted in writing on the face of this Bill of Lading and said Merchant has paid the relevant ad valorem freight rate set forth in the Carrier's Tariff.

26. VALIDITY

In the event that anything herein contained is inconsistent with any applicable international convention or national law which cannot be departed from by private contract, the provisions hereof shall to the extent of such inconsistency but no further be null and void.

27. BOTH-TO-BLAME COLLISION

The Both-to-Blame collision clause published by the Baltic and International Maritime Council is hereby incorporated into this Bill of Lading.

28. ISPS Code

The Merchant has to comply with the requirements of the ISPS Code. If the Carrier is held liable by any state authority or any other third party, the Merchant will indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless from any damage resulting from the violation of the Code by the Merchant.

The Merchant undertakes to pay to the Carrier any costs or
